Retour sur la journée passée à Deauville, dans le cadre du Festival du cinéma Américain, par les élèves de la section euro du LP Aristide Briand d'Evreux .

Retours d'expérience rédigés en anglais par les élèves de terminale Euro.

On Friday 13th September, we left for Deauville to watch two movies at The American Film Festival.

We saw three movies :

- In The Summers by Alessandra Lacorazza Samudio. It depicts the story of two girls visiting their father who is fighting addiction every summer.
- We grown Now, By Nimhal Baig. It tells the story of two close friends living in Chicago and having social issues.
- Daddio, by Christie Hall. It is the story of a young woman who is exchanging with a taxi driver in Manhattan.

We also got the chance to have lunch under the sun on the famous BOARDS of Deauville and have a walk in this touristic place !
